

147496
2/2/99

Rs. 5000/-

ප්‍රතිලාභ

A Study of the Nātakas of Bhāsa, Kālidāsa and Harṣa with Reference to the Themes of Heroism and Love

A Thesis Submitted to the University of Sri Jayawardene pura for
The Degree of Doctor of Philosophy
by

April 1997

Edirimuni Herlin Waturegama

147496

Contents

	Pages
Preface	iii
The Scheme of Transliteration	v
Abbreviations	vi
Bibliography	vii
Contents	xii
Introduction	xiv

I. The Changing Role of the Spirit of the Sanskrit Drama

1

The Dūtāghaṭōtkaca; The Bālacarita; The Dūtavākya; The Ūrubhaṅga; The Karṇabhāra; The Pañcarātra; The Madhyamavyāyoga; The Abhiṣekanāṭaka; The Pratimānāṭaka; The Avimāraka; The Svapnavāsavadatta; The Mālavikāgnimitra; The Vikramorvaśīya; The Abhijñānaśākuntala; The Priyadarśikā; The Play within the Play; The Ratnāvalī; The Nāgānanda; The Character of the Vidūṣaka and Sense of Humour.

II. The Theme of Heroism

79

The Aim of Heroism; The Treatment of warfare; The Concept of Battle and Warfare; The Glimpses of Warfare; The Rules Observed in Warfare.

III. The Theme of Love

110

Behaviour Patterns of the Heroes in Love; The Method of Sublimation of Love.

IV. Comparison with Some Greek and Shakespearean Dramas

145

Comparison with the Theme of Heroism; The Theme of heroism in the Plays of Shakespeare; Comparison with the Theme of Love; Comparison with Some of the Dramas of Shakespeare.

V. The Success of the Heroic Dramas of the Three Dramatists, Bhāsa, Kālidāsa and Harṣa

198