

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First I gratefully acknowledge the guidance, support and continuous encouragement provided by my first supervisor Dr. Maduka Udunuwara and second supervisor Dr. A. K. L. Jayawardana. I am also grateful for Prof. J. A. S. K. Jayakody's wisdom and direction which enriched the designing and writing of this thesis.

I acknowledge the support and guidance provided by Prof. Ajantha Dharmasiri, Director PIM and the faculty of the PIM throughout the course of the MBA and this thesis. I am also grateful for the PIM's administrative staff especially the library staff who efficiently attend to the students' needs and requirements making their journey at PIM a pleasant one.

A special note of thanks goes to all the participants of interviews for responding positively and promptly and sparing time to talk to me in between their tight travel or work schedules. The vibrant stories, critical views and detailed explanations shared by them were a great value addition to this study. I would also like to acknowledge and thank my family members and friends, especially Rangana Madusanka, Nilangika Fernando and Gayashi Jayasinghe for their constant support and encouragement without which this thesis would not have been completed.
